REFERRAL on behalf of
MIRIAM LEA ZIVEN

To whom it may concern:

As one's professional career winds down, it is a delight to find someone like Miriam Lea Ziven.

It was my pleasure to work with Miriam over the course of the preceding year. She proved herself a competent professional associate, one in whom you can rightfully repose trust and expect that trust to be rewarded. I found myself far better off for having given my full confidence to her training efforts.

As President Emeritus and then Board Chair of San Mateo Land Exchange, I learned just how dangerous it was to have to rely on people who postured and gave false representations as to the quality of their work. Employing very few of such an ilk could easily compromise the quality of an otherwise promising enterprise.

All was positive in my association with Miriam, who, with boundless enthusiasm, impressively evoked a paradigm of learned professionalism in every single task she undertook on my behalf. Miriam brings the gifts of effort and dedication to her work each and every day.

Additionally, in the classroom settings that I attended, Miriam also proved capable of cultivating an intense sense of comradery. Despite having to work with groups that others would find challenging—groups including myriad skill levels and backgrounds—Miriam consistently found the common ground where all could progress at the best speed of which they were capable.

I am delighted to recommend Miriam Lea Ziven's services without reservation, and commend her to your review.

Sincerely,

James Callan
